THE CLOSING
THE HUMAN SIDE OF COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE

Reel Estate

But MetroPartners isn't the only real estate company that's mining for screen gems. Los Angeles-based Tishman International Cos. recently announced its sponsorship of the Tishman International Bulgarian Film Festival. Held in New York, the event featured new films from Bulgaria and a meet-and-greet with some of the country's most prominent filmmakers. The festival, which ran April 4 through April 19, also spotlighted award-winning features, documentaries and short films produced in Bulgaria over the past two years.

Tishman is no stranger to the central European country. The company and its partner, GE Real Estate Central & Eastern Europe, are developing Sofia Airport Center, a 1.8 million-square-foot business complex in Bulgaria's capital city of Sofia.
