

Text under picture: The subsidiary of Tishman Management Company – Sofia Airport Center received a first-class investor certificate. The minister of Economy and Energetics Rumen Ovcharov personally handed the certificate to Julian Edwards, CEO of Tishman Management Company on a ceremony in the Ministry of Economy and Energetics. Sofia Airport Center (www.sofiaairportcenter.com) will be the first international business park in Bulgaria, in which the working environment will be conformable to all international standards.

Text in column: An Oscar for the week deserves Pepa Dimitrova – because as a TL Property Company's operations Manager she will receive a first-class investor certificate for the project Sofia Airport Center. The company, which is a subsidiary of Tishman Management Company, will invest more than EUR 250 M until 2011. In the project are included logistics and storehouse bases, an office park and a hotel. With the finalization of the first stage the approximate size of the investment will be around EUR 100 M. At the completion of the project over 10 000 new jobs will be opened.

Text next to picture: CEO of Tishman Management Company Julian Edwards received a first-class investor certificate on the behalf of the company. The company will invest over EUR 250 M in building of the logistics park Sofia Airport Center. The complex will be located on around 300 m away from Sofia Airport and it will be developed and managed by Tishman Management Company as it will be realized at several stages.
